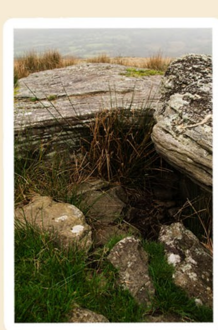
Travellers' Well
Wrth groesi'r hen ffyrdd o fynyddoedd Baran a Gwrhyd mae'r dafarn hon wedi bod yn diwallu anghenion teithwyr ers 1876.

Travellers' Well
At the crossing of the old roads from the Baran and Gwrhyd mountains this pub has been refreshing travellers since 1876.

Carn Llechart
Carnedd gladdu Oes yr Efydd (3,000 oed) gyda 25 slab yn amgylchynu cist garreg ganolog. Mae'r siambr gladdu gerllaw yn dynodi bod hwn ar un adeg yn lle sanctaidd.

Carn Llechart
A Bronze Age (3,000 years old) burial cairn with 25 slabs encircling a central stone cist. The nearby burial chamber signifies that this was at one time a sacred place.

Siambr Gladdu
Olion siambr gladdu Neolthig (4,000 mlwydd oed) gynharach gyda slabiau enfawr a fyddai wedi cynnal y to a'r waliau.



Burial Chamber
The remains of an earlier Neolthic (4,000 years old)burial chamber with huge slabs which would have supported the roof and walls.

Capel y Baran
Wedi'i adeiladu ar ddechrau'r 1800au mae gan y capel uchel, ynysig hwn gynulleidfa sydd wedi addoli yma ers cenedlaethau.

Capel y Baran
Constructed in the early 1800s this high, isolated chapel has a congregation who have worshipped here for generations.

Llwybr Carn Llechart
Mae'r llwybr hwn yn codi'n uchel uwchben Pontardawe i ymweld â safleoedd claddu hynafol ac i un o'r capeli mwyaf unig. Gellir cerdded hyn fel estyniad o Lwybr Cwmdu a byddai cyfanswm y daith gron yn cwmpasu tua 16 milltir. Byddwch yn ymwybodol y gall y tywydd ar y bryn fod yn anodd ei ragweld a bod yn barod ar gyfer tir gwlyb, mwdlyd a llithrig.

Carn Llechart Trail
This trail rises high above Pontardawe to visit ancient burial sites and to one of the loneliest chapels. This can be walked as an extension of the Cwmdu Glen Trail and the total round trip would cover approx 16 miles. Please be aware that the weather on the hill can be unpredictable and be prepared for wet, cold and muddy, slippery ground.
